

Advertise your business for $25.00!

EasternPAFootball.com is the number one source for high school football in the state. Our website has been the leader in high school football information for eleven years.

David Mika, owner of EasternPAFootball.com is well known throughout the state as a subject matter expert on high school football. He is a regular guest and contributor on RCN's weekly sports show plus consults with many media outlets statewide.

EasternPAFootball.com is offering you prime advertising space on the schedule page of your choice. For $25.00 your 150 x 150 pixel size logo will appear on any or all the local schools you choose for the entire high school football season.

Note: Three logo limit on each school's schedule page