Player of the Year

Ryan Engro, Spring-Ford

Engro accumulated more than 2,800 total yards and 34 touchdowns as he led Spring-Ford to its first Liberty Division title and first Pioneer Athletic Conference championship since 2015. (full story here)

Defensive Player of the Year

Justin Mitala, Pope John Paul II

Mitala's eye-popping 151 tackles this season (32 for loss) led a Golden Panthers defense that allowed an average of six points per contest in sweeping their Frontier Division slate.

Freshman of the Year

Joneil Oister, Pottstown

Named the Trojans' starting QB only days before the season, Oister gave new coach Jeffrey Delaney plenty of reasons to be excited for the future, accounting for 16 total touchdowns and leading two last-minute comeback victories.

Coach of the Year

Rory Graver, Pope John Paul II

Graver guided the Golden Panthers to a 9-3 finish, a PAC Frontier Division title and a District 1/12 AAA championship, all program firsts.
